

Digitalization and automation for the shunting yard of the future: the fully automated locomotive

Project achievements

- Development of a fully automated shunting yard locomotive
- Equipment of the locomotive with sensors for recognition of people or obstacles on the tracks
- Recognition of freight wagons for automated hump yard operation
- Enabled to be used on older shunting locomotives by applying innovative system integration

Project partners

